

PETROS PASTRAS CV

- Born in 7/9/1970
- Started playing guitar when I was 14 years old.
- In 1992 studied sound engineering in London in School of Audio Engineering, worked in clubs as an engineer while also got grade 7 of Theory of Music.
- In 1999 joined a couple of rock bands as a singer and worked in clubs of Athens.
- In 2000 served the Greek Army, went to Kosovo as part of KFOR and worked as an engineer for the Press office of KFOR
- In 2001 started vocal training and joined the Byzantium chorus line of Agios Dionisis in Kolonaki, Athens.
- In 2004 after working for a few years as a music production manager, started singing in Hotel President in Athens until 2009.
- In 2012 started working as a singer and guitarist in Santorini, playing in clubs, weddings and all sort of events, as well as being an in house musician for different hotels in Santorini such as Grace Hotel, Santo Maris, Andronis Suites and Andronis Boutique amongst others.

- I am performing solo, singing and playing the guitar under the name of Freshest Kid.
- For my show, I tend to include a lot of old school R'n'B grooves apart from my usual repertoire of soul, pop, and jazz tunes.
- I can improvise with guitar or vocals on top of ambient or dance music.

- I am available in Santorini from April till end of October, playing in a duet with Fotinos Tsakopoulos a.k.a. The Singles, or in trio or quartet with other musicians.
